Dare to Lead™ Retreat

The Regional Office of Education #1 is proud to host TWO Dare to Lead™ workshops for regional educators*. Based on the research of Dr. Brené, Dare to Lead™ offered by Julie Boll Consulting is an empirically based courage-building program. The Dare to Lead™ program is designed for individuals and teams who are ready to embrace brave leadership, shed their armor, and show up with whole hearts in their work and life. To scale daring leadership and build courage in teams and organizations, we must cultivate a culture in which brave work, tough conversations, and whole hearts are the expectation, and armor is not necessary or rewarded.

The Dare to Lead™ workshop will give you the time and space you need to explore and understand the concepts presented in Brené's research, while also providing a safe space to practice the tools needed for courageous leadership. In addition to receiving a certificate of completion, individuals who complete the 16-hour program may put the Dare to Lead™ Trained badge on their LinkedIn account.

Julie Boll, M.Ed. is the founder of Julie Boll Consulting, which provides strategic planning and leadership training for nonprofits. Julie is a certified Dare to Lead Facilitator, and, in 2019, was a part of the inaugural global cohort of Leadership and Organizational Development professionals selected by thought-leader Brené Brown to facilitate her work in organizations. As a Courage Catalyst in the Dare to Lead™ program, Julie focuses her work on helping nonprofits learn the skills, practices and tools needed to support brave leaders and build more courageous cultures.
