FOR GRADES 6+
VIRTUAL FIELD TRIP

Notorious RBG: The Life and Times of Ruth Bader Ginsburg offers a visually rich and engaging look at the Justice's life and career presenting a unique take on the American legal system and civil rights movements through the lens of Ginsburg's personal experiences and public service. Students will learn the parallel stories of Ginsburg's remarkable life and the ongoing expansion of "We the People" to include those long left out of the Constitution's promises, examining her continuing work to protect civil rights and equal opportunity for all.

Available as a synchronous or asynchronous (users view on their own time) experience.
Pre-recorded Tour

OPTIONAL ADD-ON:

Live Question & Answer Session with a Museum Docent
